

NURSERY RHYMES FOR MODERN TIMES

Robert Morris

ILLUSTRATIONS

Sarah Gilbert

This book is a work of fiction. People, places, events & situations are the product of the author's imagination. Any resemblance to actual persons living or dead or historical events is purely coincidental

© 2007 Robert Morris. All rights reserved.

US Copyright applied for.

No part of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted by any means without the written permission of the author.

First edition published by Rimetime publications March 2007.

ISBN: 978-0-9555495-0-2

Printed in the United Kingdom.

Rimetime Publications
2 Canons Drive
Edgware Middlesex
HA8 7QP
England
T +44 (0)20 8951 1625
F +44 (0)20 8951 4230
E rimetime84@aol.com

This book is dedicated to my family.

Hickery dickery dock
I have to know the time
The mouse ran up the clock
& said 'It's a quarter past nine'

The Grand Old Duke of York
Went to feed his men
He gave them bread & pork
And marched them past Big Ben

Can I speak to John
He can't talk right now
We've just put his head
In the back of a cow

Jack & Jill ate their fill & drank a glass of water

Jack the clown
Larked around
& Jill played with their daughter

Too many cooks
Spoil the soup

Too many chickens Are kept in the coop

The cat makes hay
While the sun shines

The mice in dismay Are sent down the mines

One two three four five Bees fly into a hive

Six seven eight nine ten
They come out I don't know when

Hickery dickery dock
Don't go out in the sun

The mouse applied sun block
Factor fifty one

Hickery dockery dick
This rhyme is on the screen

And with just one click
Round the world is seen

Can I talk to John?
Hang on the line

With his vest & pants
In the open air drying

Georgie Porgie pudding & pie
Took a trip & wondered why
All the liners were delayed

Didn't wait another day
Hitched a lift on a mantra ray

The cat's away
The cheese is free

The mice will sing
Do Re Me

Hickery dickery duck
Alarmed began to quack
The hen began to cluck
The farmer got the sack

Little Jack Horner
Got into the ring
Came out of the corner
And started to swing

Took a punch to the jaw
It finished the bout
He fell to the floor
They carried him out

The Washing Machine
Took the towels
Washed them clean
Cooked the fowls

The Washing Machine
Spun them dry
And in between Scored a try

Hey diddle diddle
Who's the pig in the middle?

Who went into a swoon?

Who is a fan
Of a boys band?

And who danced
By the light of the moon?

Can I speak to John?
He's all tied up

With lots of rope
From a viaduct.

The cat's away

Took a trip round the lake

The mice holiday

By baking a cake

Hickery dickery dock
What will you wear with that?
The mouse put on a sock
A pair of shoes and a hat

The Grand Old Duke of York
Decided to retire

Arranged his knife & fork
Got into sleep attire

This book is dedicated to my family.