Welcome to the Kaptain Uke Glockenspiel Book. In this book I have chosen songs ideal for the 25 note chromatic glockenspiel. These are the kind you find in schools and at home. Some of the songs I have transposed to make sure the range of notes matches the instrument. If you go my website www.kaptainuke.co.uk you will able to find MP3s of each of the songs.

To keep things simple I have only used sharps (#) as opposed to flats (b) and have labelled each note clearly.
Amazing Grace

John Newton

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!
The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.
Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess, within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.
The world shall soon dissolve like snow,
The sun refuse to shine;
But God, who called me here below,
Shall be forever mine.
When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun.

Ode to Joy

Mary Had A Little Lamb

Mary had a little lamb, little lamb, little lamb.
And everywhere that Mary went, Mary went, Mary went.
It followed her to school one day, school one day, school one day.
It made the children laugh and play, laugh and play, laugh and play.
And so the teacher turned it out, turned it out, turned it out.
And waited patiently about, lee about, lee about.

“Why does the lamb love Mary so? Mary so? Mary so?”
“Why, Mary loves the lamb, you know, lamb, you know, lamb, you know.”

Mary had a little lamb, little lamb, little lamb.
Mary had a little lamb, whose fleece was white as snow.
And everywhere that Mary went, Mary went, Mary went.
And everywhere that Mary went, the lamb was sure to go.
It followed her to school one day, school one day, school one day.
It followed her to school one day, which was against the rules.
It made the children laugh and play, laugh and play, laugh and play.
It made the children laugh and play, to see a lamb at school.
And so the teacher turned it out, turned it out, turned it out.
And so the teacher turned it out, but still it lingered near.
And waited patiently about, lee about, lee about.

And waited patiently about, till Mary did appear.

“Why does the lamb love Mary so? Mary so? Mary so?”
“Why does the lamb love Mary so?” the eager children cry.

“Why, Mary loves the lamb, you know, lamb, you know, lamb, you know.”
Why, Mary loves the lamb, you know,” the teacher did reply.
