Little Ant's Big Plan

Candice Dingwall Steven McKimmie Telri Stoop

Little Ant loved to read.
Little Ant was often teased.

“Ants don’t read. Ants must feed.
Ants collect the food they need.”

Little Ant would read all day,
he'd read and read the day away.
The other ants took what they found
to store for winter underground.

His mum and dad got really mad,
and Little Ant felt really bad.

In autumn when the leaves fall down,
the ants must keep food underground.

The Queen wants food to fill the store,
so all the ants must work some more.

Little Ant begins to shout about a place he read about.

“A restaurant is what we need,
a place where people go to feed.
It says so in the books I read.”

The ants go marching one by one.
They march into the setting sun.

And Little Ant said
"Hey, there's one!"

The ants go marching one by one,
carrying a burger, carrying a bun.

When they return the Queen is glad.
The stores are full. They cheer like mad.

Ant gets hugs from mum and dad.

His baby sister takes his hand
“Now I think I understand.”

“The way you love to read a book ...
Makes me want to take a look.”
