Karabo's Question

My sister Kifue
chases roosters that crow.

What do I do?
What do I know?

My brother Katleho
has a ball to throw.

What do I do?
What do I know?

My cousin Kutloano
plants seeds in a row.

What do I do?
What do I know?

My cousin Kamohelo
leans on her hoe.

What do I do?
What do I know?

My aunt Keromang
has a dress to sew.

What do I do?
What do I know?

My uncle Khotso
herds the cattle that low.

What do I do?
What do I know?

Mama dries wheat
when the wind does not blow.

What do I do?
What do I know?

Papa rides a horse
over mountains in snow.

What do I do?
What do I know?

Grandpa's slow donkey
walks to and fro.

What do I do?
What do I know?

Grandma sings songs
till the fire burns low.

What do I do?
What do I know?

You know how to say yes.
You know how to say no.

That's what you do!
That's what you know!

Everyone laughs
when you put on a show.

Your work is to play.
Your work is to grow.
