NIKERIFF
DEAR READER,

The name Nikeriff is a unique one that my youngest autistic son came up with and used in place of Goodwill. As this story unfolded on paper, I decided Nikeriff was the perfect name for a little monster but didn’t know how I wanted to spell it.

I asked my son, Joshua. I gave Joshua a pen and paper and asked him to spell Nikeriff and he wrote Goodwill. A child’s mind is so incredibly fascinating, and it’s because of my two boys that I can appreciate the magic of imagination.

This book is dedicated to Isaac and Joshua.
Deep in the woods, inside monster school, a curious but forgetful little monster named Nikeriff could not remember the letters in the alphabet.
Nikeriff was very excited. With his teddy bear on his head, letters in one hand and sac in the other, he headed into the woods for his scavenger hunt!

Nikeriff asked his mom and dad for help. They gave him a large sac and a piece of paper with the alphabet written on it and said “Go on a scavenger hunt! Find one thing in the forest that begins with each letter of the alphabet and put it in your sac!”
On his hunt, Nikeriff spotted an Army of Ants, a Baby Bear and a Caterpillar. He put them all into his sac.

Next, he saw a baby Deer, tortoise Eggs, and a sneaky Fox trying to snatch an egg for lunch. Nikeriff swooped them all up into his sac.
On his walk, Nikeriff met a GROUNDHOG and plopped him into his sac.
Up above, was a HIVE of bees buzzing around. Nikeriff broke off the branch and saw crawling by the hive were other INSECT critters including a JUMPING SPIDER. He dropped them all inside his sac.
Phew! Nikeriff’s sac was getting heavy, and the critters were getting restless, but he had more letters to find. He already remembered half the Alphabet!

On his hunt, he caught a KISSING BUG and scooped up a LADY BUG and the MUSHROOM it was resting on and placed them all in his sac.
Nikeriff climbed a tree to get a better view of the forest.
There he saw a NEST with a sleepy OWL in it. He carefully picked up the NEST and OWL and added them to his sac.

Below him, a PORCUPINE was chasing a QUEEN BUTTERFLY. He raced around and caught them both and added them to his collection.
On his hunt, Nikeriff spied a SQUIRREL resting on a ROCK. He caught the squirrel still clinging to the rock and put them in his sac, and found he also caught a troop of TERMITES.

“HURRAY!” Nikeriff’s scavenger hunt was almost done and his squirming sac was getting very heavy.
He stopped to rest beside a flowing creek. There he saw an UNDERWIG MOTH flying around VINES.
He lasseoaed the UNDERWING moth with the VINE into his sac. Beside his monster feet, a WORM popped out of the dirt.

He lasseoaed it up and dangled him above the creek to fish out an X-RAY TETRA FISH. Nikeriff dropped both the worm and fish into his very wiggly sac.

Finally, he carefully gathered a YELLOW JACKET and plopped it into his almost full sac.
In his heavy shaky sac, he found almost every letter!
Now he just needed to find the letter...
RRRRIIIIIPPP!

His sack tore open and everything from his scavenger hunt letter rolled, ran, or flew away.
As tears streamed down his cheek, he hugged his teddy bear tight.

“BOO HOO!” Nikeriff cried, he found every letter but Z.

Suddenly, he jumped, cheered, and hugged his bear.

“Z is for ZIPPY!”
More Books by Natasha B
Available at www.NatashaBarber.org
Amazon and Barnes & Nobles

Tommy’s Lessons Book Series

- My Super Slimy Fish Bait
  Written by Natasha Barber
  Illustrated by Rayah Jaynes

- My Magic Pet Fish
  Written by Natasha Barber
  Illustrated by Rayah Jaynes

- My Tomato, Guacamole and Onion Sandwich
  Written by Natasha Barber
  Illustrated by Rayah Jaynes

- The Waiting Song
  Written by Natasha Barber
  Illustrated by Rayah Jaynes