

The Power Of

A

Toothbrush

By: The Bronchi Pair

Hello, this story tells the tale of Leo as he learns about the power and
importance of a toothbrush!

Leo's mom asks him if
he's ready for bed.

Leo says
"Yes I am!"

Leo's mom asks if he brushed his teeth
yet.

Leo says
"No I haven't. Do I have to?"

Leo's mom explains that brushing his teeth is important. It removes food and bacteria to keep his mouth clean.

Leo gets scared and starts
brushing his teeth.

Leo's mom says "Don't forget to brush for 2 minutes!"

Leo is done now and his mom says
he can go to bed now!

Leo is in bed ready to sleep. His mom says "Don't forget to brush your teeth in the morning again!"

Leo says "Okay! I'm going to brush my teeth at night and the morning for 2 minutes every day to keep my mouth clean!"

The background is a light teal color. Scattered around the central text are several colorful illustrations of toothbrushes and toothpaste tubes. There are blue, red, and orange toothbrushes, some with white bristles and some with blue bristles. There are also red and blue toothpaste tubes, some with white toothpaste being squeezed out. The text is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

Let's all use the power of a toothbrush!

About The Bronchi Pair

Inspired by how the human body has two Bronchi, The Bronchi Pair was formed. We wrote and designed "The Power of a Toothbrush" to promote oral hygiene practices, for younger kids. We hope you enjoy our book as much as we did creating it!
