PLUTON'S PLACE
PLUTON
LUCKY

Pluton the beagle was big, brave, and brown...
PLUTON
LUCKY

With floppy long ears that could wiggle right down.

Lucky the cat, with grey fur
and black stripes,
Was quick as a whisker and clever with sights.

PLUTON
LUCKY

They lived in a house
where the laughter stayed near,
Two furry brothers who loved every year.
Pluton was older,
steady and true,
Lucky was curious—what's next? What's new?
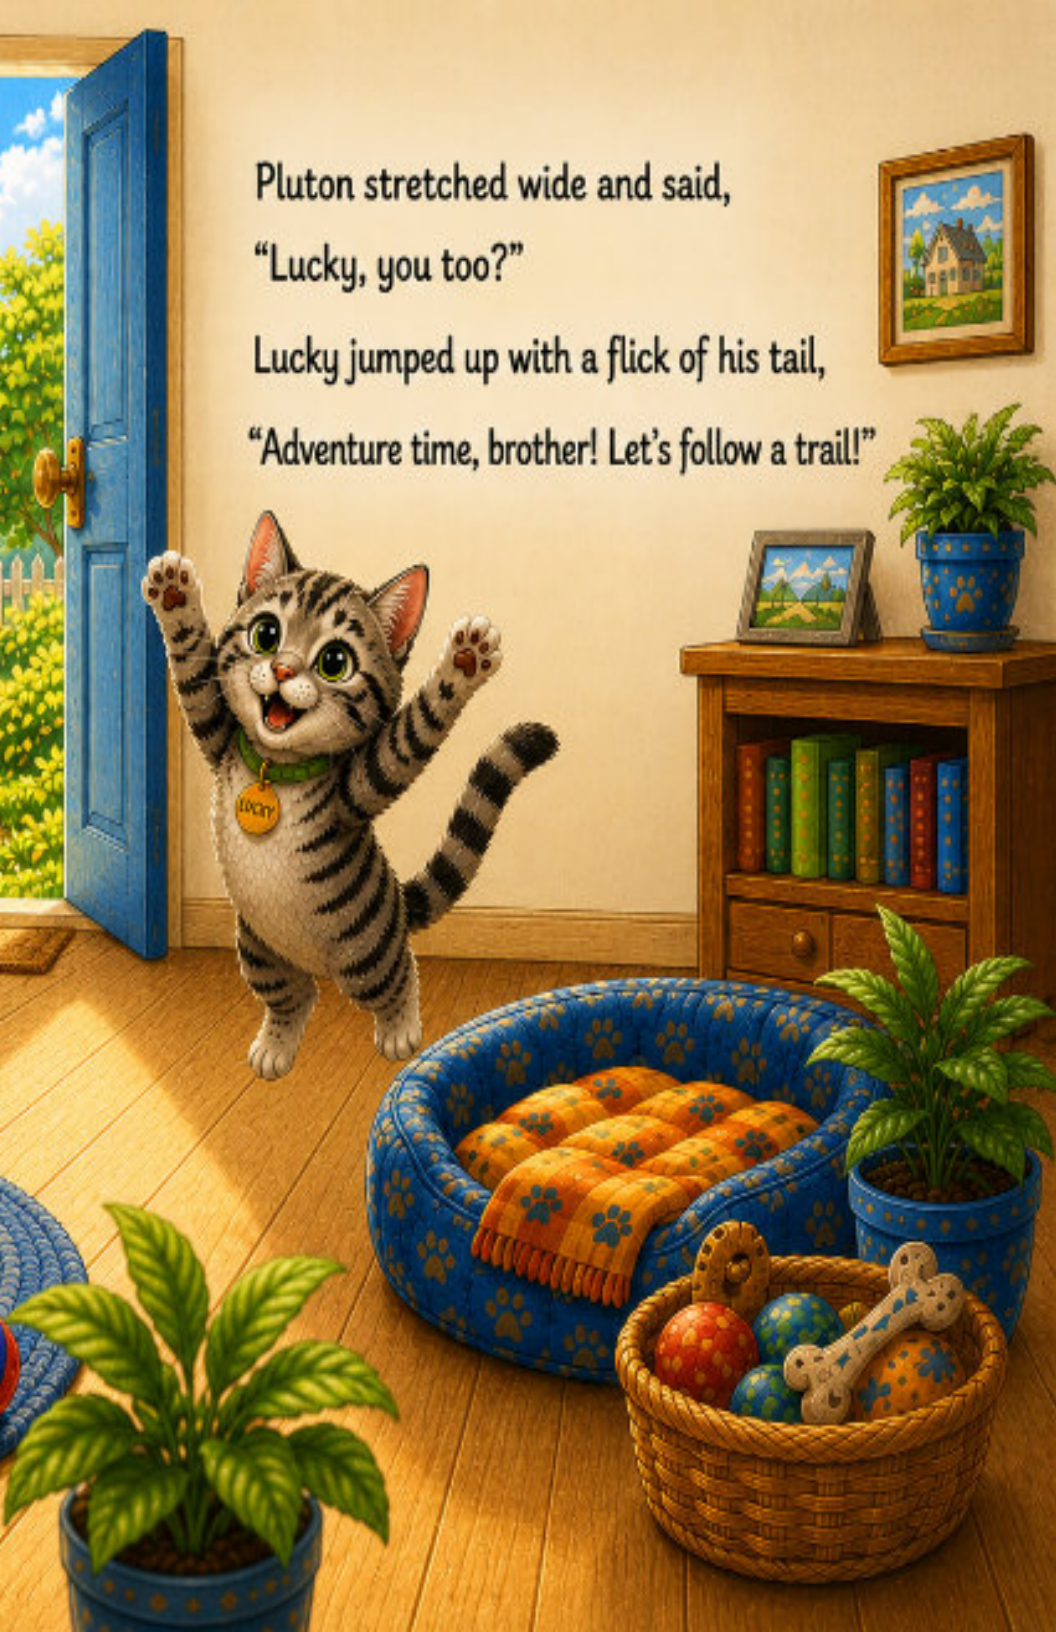
TOYS

One sunny morning,
with skies bright and blue...
PLUTON

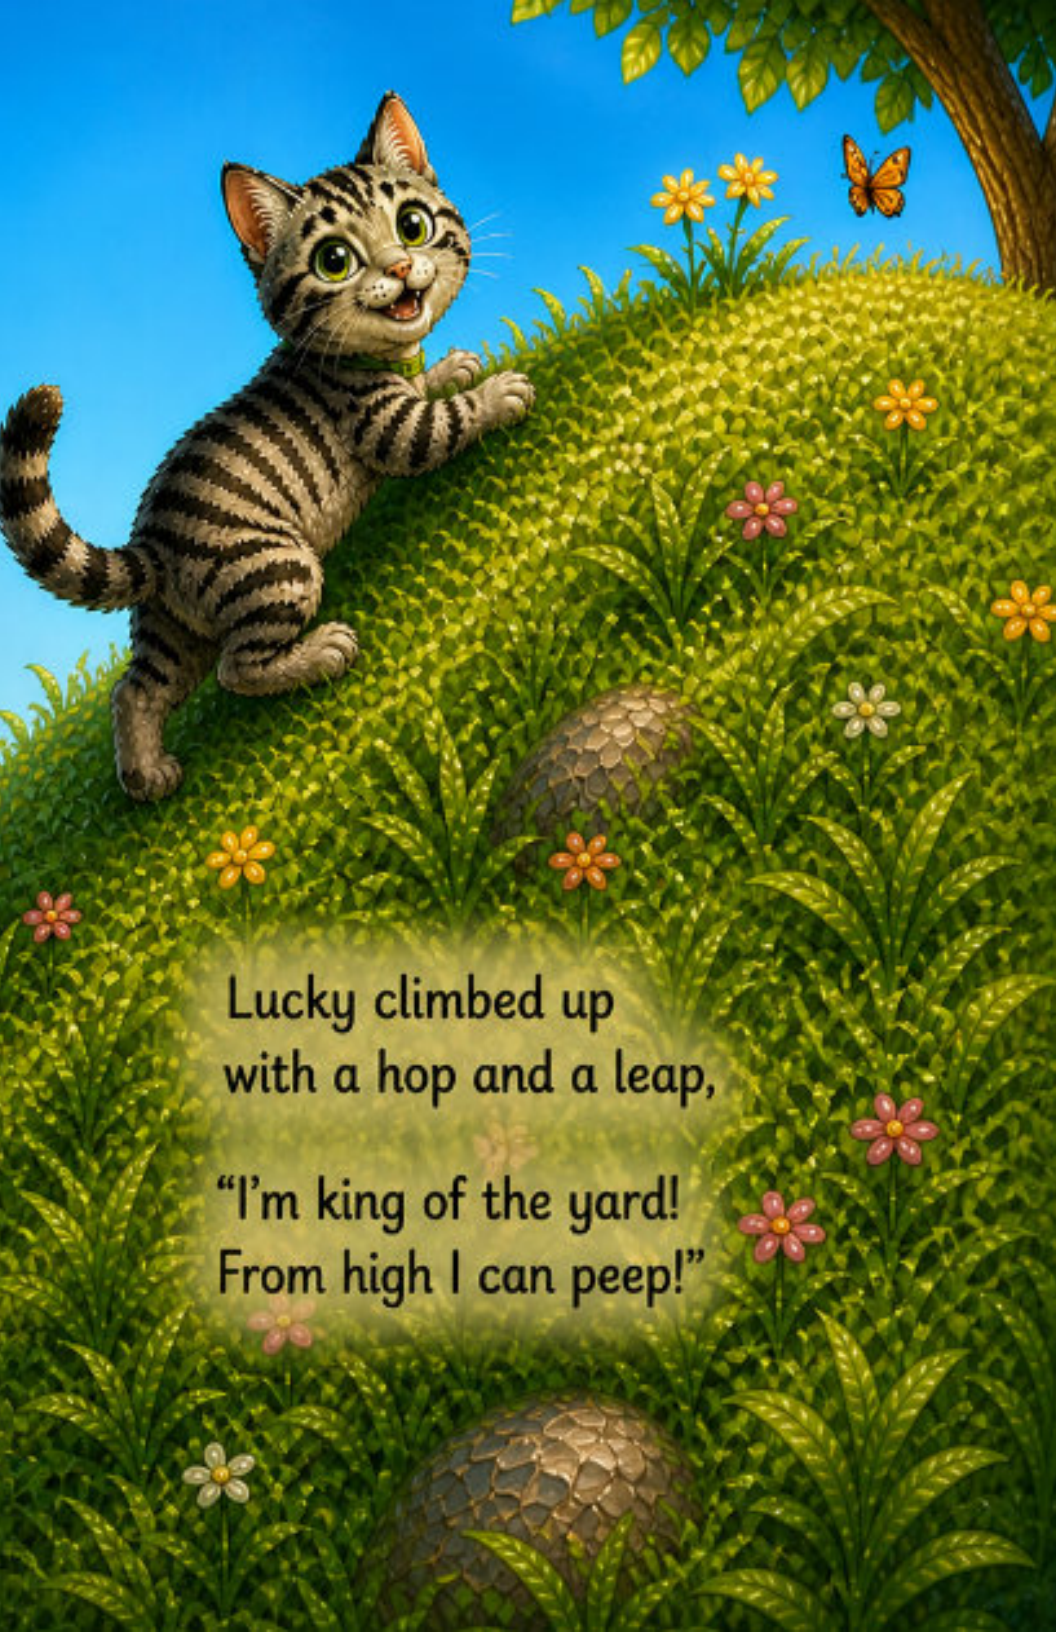


Pluton stretched wide and said,
“Lucky, you too?”
Lucky jumped up with a flick of his tail,
“Adventure time, brother! Let’s follow a trail!”

PLUTON'S PLACE
PLUTON
LUCKY

They tip-tapped outside
to the backyard so green,
The biggest adventure
they'd ever yet seen.
The grass felt tickly
under their toes,
And the breeze told secrets
only it knows.

"Look!" barked Pluton.
"A mountain so tall!"
(It was really a hill...
but big after all.)
PLUTON



Lucky climbed up
with a hop and a leap,
"I'm king of the yard!
From high I can peep!"

They found wiggly worms
and a butterfly too,
A buzzing bee zoomed by—
BZZZ! “Shoo-shoo!”
Pluton sniffed flowers—
sniff-sniff-sniff-sniff, Lucky chased shadows
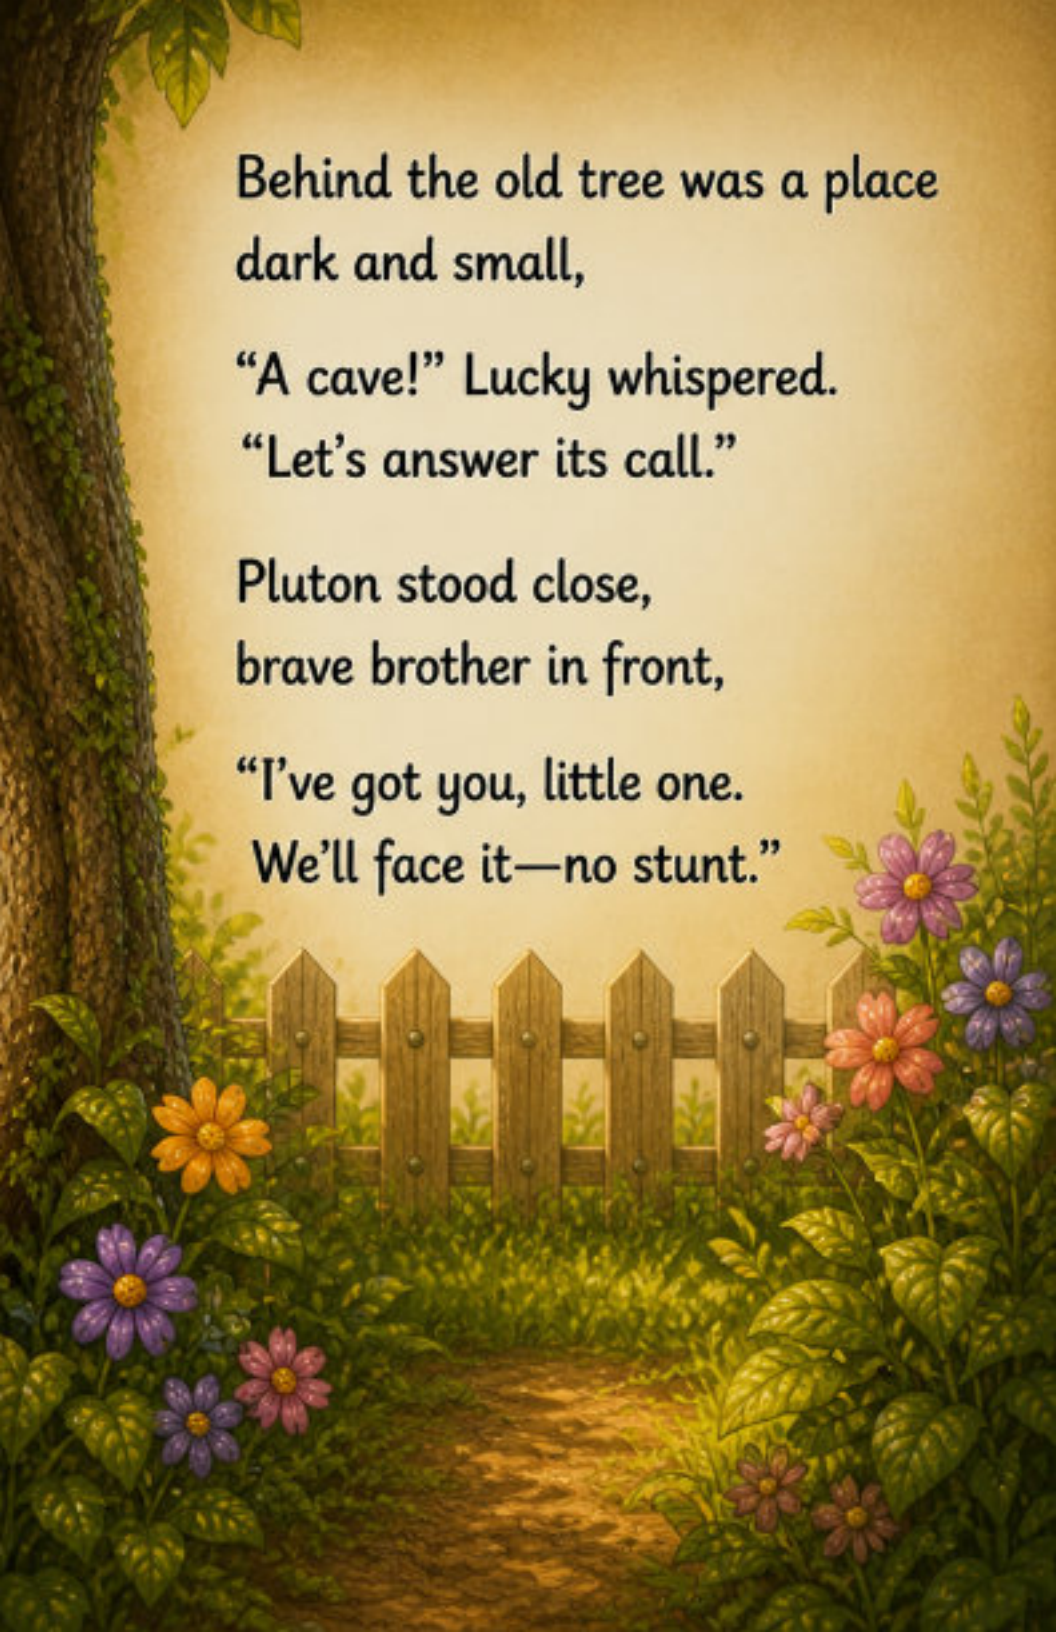
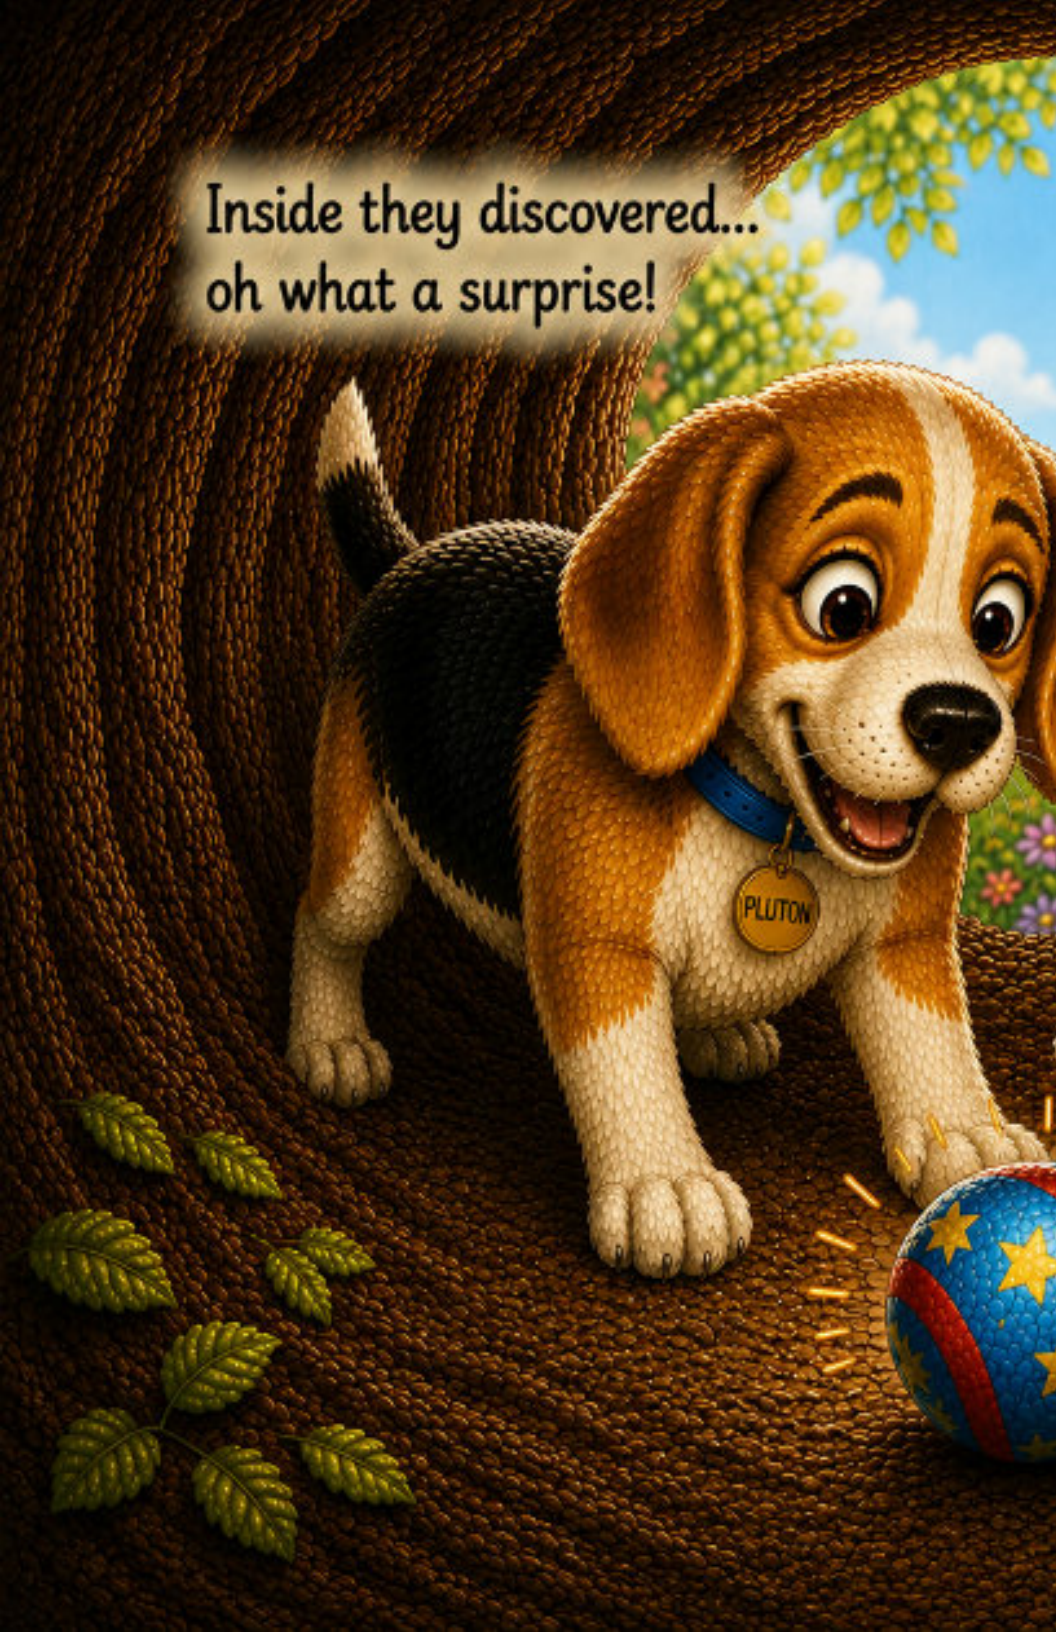
that zoomed super swift.

PLUTON



Behind the old tree was a place
dark and small,
“A cave!” Lucky whispered.
“Let’s answer its call.”
Pluton stood close,
brave brother in front,
“I’ve got you, little one.
We’ll face it—no stunt.”



Inside they discovered...
oh what a surprise!
PLUTON

LUCKY
A squeaky old ball
hiding right before eyes.

They laughed and they tumbled, they rolled and they ran,
LUCKY

PLUTON
Best backyard explorers—
the greatest in the land!

PLUTON
LUCKY

Soon the sun dipped low,
the day nearly done,
Golden and sleepy,
the shadows had fun.
Pluton lay down
with a happy deep sigh, Lucky curled close
as clouds drifted by.

“Today was amazing,”
Lucky purred slow.
Pluton smiled softly,
“And more we will go.”
“For if our backyard
can be this wide,
Just think of adventures waiting outside!”

The living room...
playground... the city so tall,
New places to sniff,
new places to sprawl.

Two furry brothers,
best friends for life,
Pluton and Lucky—
through joy and through strife.

So cuddle up tight
as this story ends here,
Their next great adventure is already near... 🌙✨
